2018 Tokushima Bioscience Retreat

This retreat is for the graduate students, faculty members, and researchers at Tokushima University. Its main objective is to provide a venue for them to get together and interact with each other across the boundaries of research fields and affiliations. At the retreat, each participant will give a research presentation followed by a question-and-answer session, both of which will be conducted entirely in English. Three best presenters will receive the Young Researchers Awards, which includes funds for presenting at an overseas conference.

Recreational activities and after-dinner social gatherings are also important parts of the retreat, and we hope that these activities will provide additional opportunities for the participants to get to know each other and to explore future research directions and generate new research groups. All graduate students of Tokushima University are invited to participate in this retreat. We look forward to seeing you there!
